

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Jean Beeman is known throughout State government as an efficient lady who gets things done; and,

WHEREAS, Jean Beeman first became a State employee in 1959 when she joined the staff of Selma Sandness, Secretary of State, and Jean has been improving State government ever since; and,

WHEREAS, Jean Beeman has not only opened her hearth and heart to countless people who needed a home, be it long-term or temporary, she also donates her time to such worthy endeavors as Cen Kota, the American Legion Auxiliary, and the elite 8 et 40; and in each organization, Jean is a moving force who gets things done and is never "just a member" but an involved, dedicated, responsible attribute; and,

WHEREAS, Jean Beeman decided many years ago that I was worthy of her tireless efforts, and she has donated thousands of hours to get me elected and is virtually a member of "the family," because she is so much more than a friend; and,

WHEREAS, Jean Beeman has announced that she will retire from public service on July 1, 1983, and it is fitting that she leave via retirement, because Jean has never quit anything:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 1, 1983, as

JEAN BEEMAN DAY

In South Dakota, and I join Jean's many friends and relatives in wishing her every happiness, good health, and good times on the occasion of her retirement. We'll miss you, Jean.
